

Logan Square Neighborhood of Chicago on Sweater Day

This new year kicks off with our sweater day. Our podium this month features Andrew Schneider of the Logan Square Preservation Group discussing the new book about Logan Square. This neighborhood was a landing point for Norwegian immigrants 100 years ago, including notables such as Knute Rockne. In fact, Logan Square was the origin of our own Chicago Torske Klub in the elegant site of the Norske Klubben at Kedzie and Fullerton.

The Illinois Centennial Monument anchors Logan Square

Other groups such as Normennenes Singing Society, and the Norwegian Memorial Church, commonly called Minnekirken, also set up roots there. Minnekirken remains as one of the last of those roots.

December Luncheon

Our December Christmas luncheon was a celebration of the season, once again led in music and prose by our good board member Pastor David Langseth and accompanied by Kathleen West on the piano and our waitress Gail on vocals. A smoked salmon was served in memory of Ron Bentsen, with thanks to Stu Bentley and Chris Betz for the memorial. Tusen takk to all for a great day.

Norway will be sending a Team to compete at Norge this year! Also, this is an Olympic Year, and Norge has 2 athletes that have a "really good shot" at making the Olympic Team....AGAIN! Casey Larson and Kevin Bichner! The Olympic Trials for Ski Jumping were held on Christmas Eve and Day 2021 in Lake Placid NY.

As in years before, the Chicago Torske Klub is invited to the VIP section of the meet, enabling the view from the warmth of the clubhouse and with food and drink. This is a fundraiser for this unique view of the ski jumping and the donation is $100 to reserve an entry button. Only 100 buttons will be sold and the offer expires January 7, 2022. That button is REQUIRED for entry to the VIP section. You all received an email with this offer and details, but if you need clarification or another copy, contact secretary@torskeklub.com and we'll send details again.

The World's Largest Sovereign Fund

Many still think of the oil rich middle east or Asia as the source of the world's largest sovereign fund. It is true that UAE ($649B) and Saudi Arabia ($430B) and Kuwait($693B) have substantial wealth. In Asia, Singapore (totaling $1.0T) and China ($1.2T) have invested wisely and grown.

But these are dwarfed by Norway's Government Pension Fund (In Norwegian: Statens pensjonsfond Utland, SPU) at over $1.4 Trillion. It is invested in over 9,000 companies, including being one of the largest shareholders of Apple. In December 2021, it was worth about $250,000 per Norwegian citizen.

Having wealth has challenges. How much to draw from this and when? Exposure to risk, estimated at 65% of investment. Investment by ethical guidelines: human rights, tobacco, and a move toward green energy. The paradox remains, as a fund derived from oil, moves away from investment in oil, coal and other fossil fuels.
